A photograph of a man lying in a hospital bed, looking distressed. He is wearing a black jacket with red polka dots and has his right hand covering his face. He is wearing a blue hospital identification band on his left wrist. The bed has white linens. To the right of the bed is a white bedside table with a blue water bottle, a yellow water bottle, and a small pot. A black trash can is on the floor next to the table. The background is a plain white wall.
