

A fan of several white, rectangular, perforated paper strips, likely for a document shredder. Each strip has a header section with text in Chinese and English, followed by a series of small, evenly spaced holes. The strips are arranged in a semi-circle, showing multiple copies of the same form. The text on the strips includes "1-111111-00-001" and "1-111111-00-002". The strips are placed on a light-colored wooden surface.
